Mass this week: Mass this week will be at 10am on Monday and Thursday.

Please Pray for those who have died, including Paul Biagi, Eddie Lennon, Gerry Donachie, John Lamont, Sean & Ian Leggat, Josephine Boyd, Bella Latham, Ken Carpy, and Anna Gerrard.

Communion at St Quivox: Several churches have reintroduced communion in the form of wine as well as bread and perhaps it is time we began to think of offering people this option too? One consequence will be the need for far more ministers of communion, and perhaps this also provides an opportunity to ask for more people to become involved in our liturgies in general. A sheet for names, numbers and what commitment you are able to make, please add your name if at all possible.

St Quivox Building Fund: Over the past few months several people have commented on damp patches staining the inside of the church, we also have a serious fungal infection in part of the church. These problems stem from issues with the roof, some of which require urgent attention. The work to the roof alone will cost several thousand pounds, and while we do have funds to cover the most urgent work, our savings were drawn upon significantly during Covid, to the point where we no longer have a comfortable reserve should any unexpected problems arise. From this weekend the collection boxes will be left out, on those weekends when there is no other statutory special collection, and labelled "building Fund" with any money donated being used for the repair and maintenance of St Quivox.

St Ninian's: There is a final chance to buy tickets for St. Ninian's Primary Parent Council's race night. It's on Friday 16th June at 7pm in the church hall and we are delighted that some parishioners are joining us. It is a 'Bring your own bottle and snacks' night and we expect to have lots of fun raising funds for the school. Tickets are £5 and available from Gordon in the hall after mass. Alternatively, you can email stninianspc@yahoo.com and we'll get them to you.

Who does what at St Quivox: A new version of the parish booklet has been printed, giving details of some of the activities that take place through St Quivox, and who to contact for more information. None of the groups are closed and new people are always welcome. The booklet also includes a brief financial statement for the parish over the past few years, dates being chosen to represent pre-Covid, mid-Covid and post-Covid.

The Repository, which is open after the 9.45am mass every Sunday, has a large stock of cards and gifts, including a selection for first communion.
