Outreach: One of the things that was raised at the last parish meeting was the sense of isolation experienced by many, including people who we would have at one time seen regularly in church. It was suggested that perhaps some of those who come to church by car might be willing to offer those who find getting here difficult a lift. That would be wonderful. But being offered a lift to church may make some people uncomfortable, we would first need to know they would like to be helped to come to church. A good first step might be to call on them, knock on their door and ask how they are. Could you do that? Is there someone you notice that is missing from the church these days? Could you call on them and ask how they are?

The Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
