Sunday 26th November 2023 – Feast of Christ the King Year A

Mass this week: Mass this week will be at 10am on Monday and Thursday.

Parish Pantomime: Thanks to everyone who came along to our parish pantomime.

Bingo! Thanks to everyone who came along to the Bingo last week, raising funds for SCIAF.

Advent starts next Sunday 3rd December and the children preparing for First Communion will take part in the Rite of Presentation during the 9:45am Mass.

In the afternoons of the first three Sundays of Advent there will be reflections on the infancy narratives from Matthew's gospel, to which all are welcome.

Also during Advent the building fund boxes will be repurposed as we continue our seasonal support for SCIAF. After Christmas the boxes will revert to the building fund as so far we have spent around £12,000 and Raised almost £5,000, thanks you.

Christmas Readers & Ministers: A sheet has been left in the church porch asking for volunteers for readers and ministers for the Christmas and New Year Services. Please add your name to the sheet if you can help.

Services of Reconciliation: There will be four reconciliation services within the deanery: St Margaret's, Ayr on Monday 11th December, St Meddan's, Troon on Tuesday 12th December, St Quivox, Prestwick on Monday 18th December and Sacred Hearts, Girvan on Tuesday 19th December all at 7pm.

Ladies: Our Christmas Party Lunch is this Saturday 2nd Dec. Doors open at 2.45pm for check-in with festive fun and Christmas cheer starting at 3pm in the hall.

The Repository is situated at the entrance to the hall and is open every Sunday after 09.45 mass. There is a large selection of cards, Rosary Beads, First Communion and Confirmation gifts, also gifts for various occasions, also a large selection of Christmas Cards, Advent Calendars, Childrens Christmas books and Nativity Sets.

Flowers at Christmas: The flower ministry are planning on having their Christmas collection after the masses on Sunday 26th November to provide flowers for the Christmas period.

Safeguarding: Over 250 people attended the National Safeguarding Conference last Saturday in Glasgow. The event was hosted by the Scottish Catholic Safeguarding Standards Agency. The theme of the conference was, "One chance to change a life: becoming experts in the art of encounter". Delegates learned about trauma informed responses to disclosures, the theology and spirituality of Safeguarding and an update from Bishop McGee's Synod experiences in Rome. The event reinforced the commitment of the Catholic Church in Scotland to continue to build a safe environment in our parishes, dioceses and religious communities. If you would like more information about Safeguarding please speak to Jacqui or email psc.prestwick@gallowaydiocese.org.uk
