Sunday 28th May 2023 – The Feast of Pentecost

Mass this week: Mass this week will be at 10am on Monday and Thursday.

Please Pray for those who have died, including Phil Davey, Isobel Mullan and Joe McEwen.

Coming out of Covid: Several churches have reintroduced communion in the form of wine as well as bread and perhaps it is time we began to think of offering people this option too? One consequence will be the need for far more ministers of communion, and perhaps this also provides an opportunity to ask for more people to become involved in our liturgies in general. A sheet for names, numbers and what commitment you are able to make, please add your name if at all possible.

LEPRA: This Sunday, 28th May, we welcome Laurice, a representative of LEPRA, who will talk about the work they are involved in and make an appeal for our support.

Swish: SWISH '23 delighted to report we raised £735 at our event. Over 60 ladies attended with lots more making welcome donations. Thank you all so much.

St Ninian's: St. Ninian's Primary Parent Council are holding a race night on Friday 16th June at 7pm in the church hall. We would be delighted if parishioners wished to join us. It is a 'Bring your own bottle and snacks' night and we expect to have lots of fun raising funds for the school. Tickets are £5 and available in the hall after morning mass or email stninianspc@yahoo.com

The Repository, which is open after the 9.45am mass every Sunday, has a large stock of cards and gifts, including a selection for first communion.
