Sunday 2nd July 2023 – 13th Sunday of Year A

Mass this week: Mass this week will be at 10am on Monday and Thursday.

Please Pray for those who have died, including Anne Faulkner, Aidan Leonard, Margaret McDonald, Helen McAllister and Isobel, Bertha and Charles Hill. Anne Faulkner's Funeral will be celebrated in St Quivox at 10am on Monday 3rd July.

Communion: From this Sunday everyone who would like to will be able to receive communion in the form of wine as well as bread at both of the Sunday masses. In a few weeks we will look at reintroducing wine at weekday masses too. No one should feel under any pressure to either receive or abstain from receiving communion from the chalice, it is entirely your own free choice.

New Rota: A new rota for readers and ministers of communion for the month of July is available in the porch. Please pick one up if you are involved in these ministries.

St Quivox Building Fund: Thank you for your generous support of our new building fund. The most urgent work has already begun on the roof and will continue in phases, according to the level of urgency. The next thing on the list needing urgent attention is a particularly nasty case of dry rot, work on that will begin very soon. The "Building Fund" boxes will continue to be left out on Sundays when we are not obliged to have a second collection for another cause..

Children's Liturgy: Thanks to all the volunteers for the wonderful work they do, they are now having a well-earned break while the schools are on holiday, so there will be no children's liturgy for the next few weeks. Why not think of joining them when the children's liturgy resumes after the summer?

Christian Aid: Many thanks to everyone who returned CA envelopes to St Quivox, which totalled a great sum of £268.77. Totals for the Fun Day (approx. £1000) and envelopes returned to other Prestwick churches, will be collated soon and a final complete total noted in a future bulletin. Thank you to everyone who participated in CA week and came to events, with a special mention to all our volunteers who gave up their time to distribute donation envelopes, thank you.

The Repository, which is open after the 9.45am mass every Sunday, has a large stock of cards and gifts.
