Sunday 5th February 2023 – The Fifth Sunday of Year A

Mass this Week: Mass this week will be on Monday and Thursday at 10am.

Please Remember all those who have died including Denis Hutchinson, Sandra Niven, John Doherty, Isabella McAnally, Jeannie Thomson, Phyllis Hickey, Michael King and Mary McGeough.

Women's Group: An inaugural meeting of a group for women in the parish, or other women interested, will be held at 7pm on Wednesday 8th February, just to explore what women would like to do as a group or groups.

Children's Liturgy: It has been wonderful to see an increasing number of children attending the Children's Liturgy group during Mass on Sundays. We would very much like this to continue and for it to grow. At the moment we have only 3 people operating this and so are appealing for more parishioners to help. We work as a wee, supportive team and can each say it is a very rewarding role. We would ideally like to run on a rota basis so there wouldn't be the need for an every-week commitment. New helpers would require to obtain PVG certification as well as attend a Safeguarding training session initially. If you think you may be interested, please come and speak to Angela, Jacqui or Angie after morning Mass in the tea room. Thank you.

"Cosy Space" VASA: Our church hall will continue to open every Wednesday from 2 – 5pm for coffee and biscuits. Everyone is welcome so please pop in for a coffee and a chat.

Missing Faces: As you look around the church are there faces missing? People you would have seen here at one time but haven't seen for a while? Do you know how they are? Could you phone them or knock on their door and ask how they are doing? Reach out to them and let them know that they haven't been forgotten.

The Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed: For anyone who may be a little rusty reciting the Creed, it is printed on page 6 of the hymn book.

Church Envelopes: New collection envelopes are available for everyone who would like them, please collect them from the church porch as soon as possible. Thank you.

Church Car Park: Please remember that when the church and hall are not in use the car park will be locked.
