Sunday 9th July 2023 – 14th Sunday of Year A

Mass this week: Mass this week will be at 10am on Monday and Thursday.

Please Pray for those who have died, including Aidan Leonard, Ann Martin, John Moscardini, Alexander McCann, Donnie Fitzsimmons and Gerry Jones.

Communion: From last Sunday everyone who would like to will be able to receive communion in the form of wine as well as bread at both of the Sunday masses. In a few weeks we will look at reintroducing wine at weekday masses too. No one should feel under any pressure to either receive or abstain from receiving communion from the chalice, it is entirely your own free choice.

New Rota: A new rota for readers and ministers of communion for the month of July is available in the porch. Please pick one up if you are involved in these ministries.

St Quivox Building Fund: Thank you for your generous support of our new building fund. The most urgent work has already begun on the roof and will continue in phases, according to the level of urgency. The next thing on the list needing urgent attention is a particularly nasty case of dry rot, work on that will begin very soon. The "Building Fund" boxes will continue to be left out on Sundays when we are not obliged to have a second collection for another cause.

Children's Liturgy: There will be no children's liturgy for the next few weeks, while the schools are on holiday. Why not think of helping when the children's liturgy resumes after the summer?

The Repository, which is open after the 9.45am mass every Sunday, has a large stock of cards and gifts.
