Responsorial Psalm: The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

Mass this week: Mass this week will be at 10am on Monday but there will be no Mass on Thursday, I will be in Queen Margaret's.

One Way! We have had a couple of complaints about people driving the wrong way down Boyd Street, pointing out that it is one way and that there are clear no entry signs at the end outside the church. They have no yet begun recording registration numbers but they do intend to.

Inspirational Talk & Tea: The Soul Sisters are hosting a talk by Chantal McFeely, on Wed 17th April at 7pm, in the hall. Chantal is a parishioner of St Quivox and friend of The Soul Sisters. She will talk about how swimming helped her push through the grief of losing her soulmate and her determination to raise awareness and reduce the stigma of those struggling with mental health and addiction. Her book, Waves of Change, is a testament to her resilience, positive mindset and determination. Everyone is welcome!

Fr Martin Chambers:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As with many of you I am mourning the loss of our own Fr Martin Chambers. This is a personal loss to so many across the Diocese and beyond (right across the Atlantic to Ecuador).

We think in particular of his family whom he loved so much.

He was a man of great love, enthusiasm and faith. He gave everything for the People of God, and so many have been touched by him. We only learn to love if we have been loved first: Fr Martin was one of the finest teachers in how to love, and so was a true instrument of God.

As he looked forward to his new role as Bishop, he spoke often as being a missionary disciple and he certainly was that.

Can I ask that in a special way, you take care of your priests more than ever in the days that follow? They have lost a brother and need your love.

We continue to pray for each other, for his family and for the repose of his soul.
