Responsorial Psalm: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Thank You: It takes a lot of people a lot of hard work to bring together our liturgies over Holy Week, many working behind the scenes, unseen and often unthanked. On behalf of everyone who shared in our liturgies I would like to thank everyone who contributed in whatever way, and I wish you all a very happy Easter.

Mass this week: Mass this week will be at 10am on Monday and Thursday, with Winnie Hamilton's funeral service at 12.30pm on Friday.

One Way! We have had a couple of complaints about people driving the wrong way down Boyd Street, pointing out that it is one way and that there are clear no entry signs at the end outside the church. They have no yet begun recording registration numbers but they do intend to.

Inspirational Talk & Tea: The Soul Sisters are hosting a talk by Chantal McFeely, on Wed 17th April at 7pm, in the hall. Chantal is a parishioner of St Quivox and friend of The Soul Sisters. She will talk about how swimming helped her push through the grief of losing her soulmate and her determination to raise awareness and reduce the stigma of those struggling with mental health and addiction. Her book, Waves of Change, is a testament to her resilience, positive mindset and determination. Everyone is welcome!

Competition Winners: We had over 150 entries from St. Ninian's and Glenburn Primary Schools for The Mad Hatter's Tea Party colouring competition on Saturday. The entries were excellent and the pictures created a colourful display around the hall. After much deliberation the winners were finally selected - Layton Cunningham and Bram Foster (St Ninian's), Emily Morrison and Jack Rooney (Glenburn). Congratulations! The winners were presented with their certificates and gifts at school on Thursday. Thank you to all the children who entered the competition and to the teachers for their support.
