Sunday 31st July 2022 – 18th Sunday of Year C

Mass this Week: Weekday masses this week are as normal, with mass on Monday and Thursday at 10am.

Feasts this week: include the feast of St Alphonsus Liguori on Monday, and St John Vianney on Thursday. Saturday is the Feast of the Transfiguration.

Christian Aid: The final total for CA week donations from Prestwick Churches committee was a marvellous £3,684.40 raised from various events including a coffee morning, street collection and envelopes. £207.50 returned in envelopes to our own church. Many, many thanks to our wonderful envelope distributors from St Quivox, also to those who donated to help others in great need, all are very much appreciated. St Quivox Christian Aid.

Please remember all in our parish who are sick, including Madeleine McGowan, and remember also those who have died, including Patrick O'Riordan, who died recently, and Maureen Robinson, Ryan Price, Peter Kerr, Mark Hendren and Gloria Martinelli, whose anniversaries are around this time. Patrick O'Riordan's funeral will be at 10am on Friday 5th August in St Quivox.

Please also remember Brenda O'Shea, whose family wrote to thank everyone in the parish for their kind words, cards, flowers, and expressions of sympathy, they were greatly appreciated. Brenda's family have asked that mass be celebrated for your intentions.

International Aid: Collection Boxes will be put out on the first Sunday of every month, starting next Sunday, 7th August and any money raised will be sent to various charities working overseas.

"The Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord reminds us that we are called to experience being in touch with Christ so that, enlightened by his light, we might bear it and make it shine everywhere like tiny lamps of the Gospel that bear a little bit of love and hope."

— Pope Francis
