Mass this Week: As of this morning (Saturday) I am still testing positive for Covid, hopefully that won't continue much longer, but for the moment it means I won't be able to celebrate mass until I have negative tests on two consecutive days. Therefore there will be no mass on Monday or Thursday this week. Thanks to Canon Keegan for covering the Sunday Masses.

Offertory Procession: Before Covid bread and wine were brought to the altar in procession during Sunday mass and I was wondering if it is now time to reintroduce this? If you would be willing to be called upon to do this, please add your name to the list on the notice board and say whether it would be at the morning or the evening mass.

Children's Liturgy: Thanks to everyone involved in restarting the Children's Liturgy, they are now having a break while the schools are on holiday for the summer. It is worth emphasising that this isn't a crèche or childcare facility, it is a liturgy of the word prepared for children of primary school age, it draws on the same passages of scripture we use in the church but presents them in a way that helps children understand them better.

No Parking: the slabs outside the church occasionally create a trip hazard. To try to prevent this they will be cleaned and grouted to stop them moving. However, I would ask that everyone avoids driving over or parking on the slabbed area in front of the church at any time.
